SCOTT FERGUSON
Editor and Business Manager

Editing the L'Acadien for you has been mixed with both sorrow and joy. There were times when it all seemed hopeless, but sometime between midnight and morning we usually worked things out to our, and we hope to your satisfaction. I am very grateful to my cooperative staff for without their personal interest my job would have been almost impossible, and a large bouquet of orchids to Mr. Harry DeLaRue for his patient, untiring effort in advising and helping me.

May you, the students of Southwestern, accept this book with an open mind. Mistakes were made, but I sincerely hope that the good features overshadow the bad ones. Let this book help you remember, perhaps the most eventful year of your life.

So with personal greetings to each of you we present L'ACADIEN of '42.

Business Manager

Truly nicknamed "the voice of Southwestern", the Vermilion is the weekly publication of the students of our greater S. L. I. Its staff is composed of students who are interested in the journalistic field.

This paper is the sister publication of our own L'Acadien. Its purpose is to bring to the students and faculty, news of activities that are primarily concerned with our college. There is a weekly meeting of writers, at which time coffee and cakes are served to the staff and guests.

BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

The Board of Publications is the governing body that controls the two college publications, namely the Vermilion and the L'Acadien. It is made up of five members chosen by the President of the Student Body, and approved by the President of Southwestern Louisiana Institute. The only office is the chairmanship which is held by one of the members. It is the duty of this board to set up the qualifications to be met by the editors and business manager of the L'Acadien and Vermilion. They also select the editors and business manager from those students meeting the necessary requirements.

LOUISIANA'S LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
CROWNS THE CAMELLIA QUEEN OF 1942

NT OF CAMELLIAS

One of the highlights of Southwestern's annual Mid-Winter Fair is the beautiful Camellia Pageant. Reigning supreme over the floral pageant was Miss Clara Holly who was selected by the student body to be Queen of Camellias of 1942. Louisiana's Lieutenant Governor Marc Mouton crowned the queen in a colorful climax to the impressive and beautiful spectacle.

From an humble beginning in 1934, the Camellia Pageant has grown to be a tradition in Southwestern life. The pageant is presented by the Department of Art and Department of Agriculture in cooperation and each year's program attracts greater interest and is produced on a grander scale.

Attending the queen as Maids of Honor were Misses Otha V. Kelley and Audrey Begue. Sorority representatives to the camellia court were Misses Vestal Dean Williams, Jeanette McNeil, Evelyn Frost, Peggy McIntire and Lorraine O'Quain.

SOUTHWESTERN 19; SOUTHEASTERN 7

Southwestern's Bulldog football team, defending L.I.C. champions, opened their 1941 campaign against the Southeastern Lions at Hammond, La. A line-up featuring Juniors opened the game, displaying deception and power despite the newness of the season.

In the second quarter Captain Jake Neely intercepted a Lion pass on his own one yard line and here the Bulldogs took things in hand as Bob Voitier behind perfect blocking scampered 62 yards for the opening score. Kick for point was wide.

In the second half Bulldog backs Corbin, Neil and Robinson made four successive first downs only to be halted on the Southeastern 20 yard line. Early in the fourth period Voitier and mates took the ball to the Lion 12 only to lose possession. However, the Bulldogs recovered a Lion fumble and on the first play Bill Bernhard bucked over for a score. Kick was wide. Later in the same quarter, All Conference Paul Neil passed to Al Steigman who evaded five would-be tacklers to cross the goal line. Bandura kicked goal to make the score 19 to 0.

Southeastern's only marker came late in the final stanza on a pass from Reisz to Allison. Extra point was good.

The colorful Southwestern 125 football band was on hand and spurred the Bulldogs to greater efforts.

SOUTHWESTERN 6; MILSAPS 0

The opening home game of the season found Southwestern pitted against the strong Milsaps Majors of Jackson, Mississippi. The Majors came to town with an impressive record including overwhelming victories over Centenary and Louisiana College and had yet to be scored upon. The Bulldogs not only stopped the Milsaps' attack cold, but managed to put over a touchdown themselves.

Rapid Robert Voitier gathered a Major punt in early in the first period and raced behind splendid interference to cross the goal line unhindered. The game then settled

SOUTHWESTERN 6; U. OF ALABAMA 47

On September 27 Southwestern invaded foreign soil to battle the great Crimson Tide of Alabama at Tuscaloosa. It was a royal homecoming to his alma mater for Southwestern's Coach Cain.

The veteran Bulldog line held staunchly throughout the first half, but the Alabama reserve power proved too strong and the Crimson Tide's vaunted steamroller steamed up in the final period. Half time found Southwestern trailing by a 19 to 0 score.

The Bulldog passing attack completely baffled the big 'Bama backs. Voitier's heaves found ready receivers in Neely, Bandura, Fitzgerald and Scelfo. The only Southwestern score was set up via the air lanes. Voitier tossed to Scelfo on the Alabama 13 yard line. Another pass from Voitier gained ten yards and hard running Bill Bernhard plunged through for the Bulldog tally. Alabama sports scribes termed Southwestern's Voitier "the best passer in Dixie."

Coach Mitchell's forward wall displayed a brilliant defense. McGraw, Ramsay and Huls were outstanding in checking the attack of the Cotton Bowl Champions.

Many old Alabama fans came to the game just to see the team coached by one of Alabama's immortal All-Americans, John Cain.

down with both teams striving to locate a weakness in the opponent's defense.

tive and only by a drastic tightening of their aerial defense were the Bulldogs able to halt the air minded Majors.

The strong Bulldog line played an outstanding game and allowed the Majors only six first downs by ground plays while the Southwestern backs were slipping through the Milsaps' forward wall for 11 first downs.

Playing the full, gruelling sixty minutes, Charlie Robinson starred on the defensive and accounted for many long gains on reverses and line bucks.

SOUTHWESTERN 39; SPRINGHILL 0

Before a gay crowd of old grads in McNaspy Stadium, Southwestern's football warriors climaxed a colorful homecoming celebration by downing Springhill College by an overwhelming score of 39 to 0. The day was bright and crisp, perfect football weather.

The Bulldogs played an outstanding game and scored at will throughout the contest. Coach Cain's Canines opened their bag of tricks and the powerful line charges intermixed with tricky reverses and bullet like passes kept the scorer busy.

Fireworks were started by Charlie Robinson who scored in the last minutes of the first quarter. Soon after speedy Paul Neil shook loose on a 14 yard jaunt for another Southwestern marker. The same Neil a minute later heaved a fast pass to alert Leo Coe who ran 37 big yards for the third Bulldog tally. Early in the second half, high stepping Bob Voitier added another touchdown and the Bulldog reserves began to see action. Paul Neil scored for the second time in a right end run that hit pay dirt. Jack Voitier skirted around left end and across the Badger goal line for the final score.

Louisiana's Governor, Sam Jones, was an interested spectator at the contest and in a colorful half time ceremony crowned the Southwestern Homecoming Queen, Miss Mary Louise McKague.

SOUTHWESTERN 23; LOUISIANA COLLEGE 7

Continuing a rivalry dating from 1910, the Southwestern Bulldogs smashed a game Louisiana College team 23 to 7 at Lafayette. The victory was the Canines' second conference win of the season.

Southwestern's only field goal of the year was kicked in this encounter. Co-Captain Johnny Bandura, stellar left end, booted a perfect placement from the Cat's 12 yard marker. A long pass from Voitier to Bandura good for 58 yards put the locals in position for the kick.

Fleet-foot Pershing Cashen scored the first Bulldog touchdown on a reverse that netted 55 yards and six points. Frosh End Scelfo kicked the extra point. Louisiana College went on the defensive after a poor punt, but Charlie Robinson on several smashing line plunges scored again for the Bulldogs a few minutes before the half.

The final Southwestern touchdown was the result of a beautiful pass from Neil to "General" Pershing Cashen for Cashen's second score of the contest. Bandura added the extra point.

Taking advantage of a short return punt from inside Bulldog territory and several against Southwestern, Louisiana College pushed over their only score from the 2 yard line late in the final period.

The great Bulldog line displayed its vaunted defensive power only when the Cats were threatening, allowing the visitors 11 first downs. Ramsay, Huls and Scelfo starred in the line.

LOUISIANA TECH 12; SOUTHWESTERN 0

On a gloomy, cold, rain soaked gridiron, Southwestern's L.I.C. championship hopes were dashed by an alert Louisiana Tech squad. Playing before a small crowd in Ruston, Coach Cain's Bulldogs seriously hampered by the inclement weather, failed to get going and were bested by a 12 to 0 score.

Offensive ineffectiveness coupled with bad breaks kept the red and white in check. Voitier and Neil made several substantial gains, but were unable to spark a concentrated drive. Huls, Eickham and Campbell were defensive bulwarks throughout the 60 minutes.

Early in the first period Southwestern was penalized 15 yards to the three yard line in the shadow of their own goal posts. Tech's football banged over for the initial score of the game, but missed the conversion. For the remainder of the first half the game was slow and neither aggregation threatened.

Hardly had the whistle for the second half blown when Tech hit pay dirt again. A long prayer pass connected for a touchdown, icing the game and the conference championship for the North Louisianians.

Southwestern was definitely not in stride and was unable to penetrate the stubborn, determined Tech defense. Tech capitalized on the breaks of the game and made the most of every Bulldog error. Although Southwestern did not win the L.I.C. crown, the Bulldog football record for the entire season, including all games played, was the best in the conference.

SOUTHWESTERN 25; STEPHEN F. AUSTIN 0

In a non-conference game with the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks at McNaspy stadium the Bulldogs exploded a brilliant attack, blitzing the visitors by a 25-0 score.

On the second play of the game Bob Voitier slid around end and breezed over for a Bulldog score. Charlie Robinson tunneled over for another six points soon after. Continuing their smooth-functioning play the gridders shook climax runner Paul Neil loose for a third score in the second quarter. The downfield blocking of Huls and Ramsay opened a path for Neil.

Third stringers took over at the half and not only restrained the Texan scoring effort, but managed to add another six points in the third quarter. The Lumberjacks took to the air in the last half in a vain attempt to score but frequent Bulldog interceptions repulsed the effort.

The generalship of quarterbacks Leo Coe and Al Steigman in the first half cracked the Lone Star lads' defense wide open. Demoralized and disheartened by the superior Bulldog tactics the Jacks were easily halted after the half.

SOUTHWESTERN 0; MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN 0

An inspired, fighting band of Southwestern football men showed their true ability and rose to the occasion in playing the favored Mississippi Southern team to a thrilling scoreless tie. Hailed as the strongest small college team in the nation, the Confederates boasted an undefeated, untied record and ranked as the second highest scoring team in the nation, before their visit to Lafayette.

It was a moral victory for Southwestern. The Bulldogs amassed 18 first downs while the Southerners were collecting only six. The first half featured a spirited punting duel between Voitier and Van Tone of the visitors, both punters kicking out of danger several times.

After the half the Bulldogs blasted the Mississippi defense with a pass attack that netted 130 yards and were able to penetrate the Confederate 20 yard line on three separate occasions, but each time severe penalties and pass interceptions cost them the score. On a tricky reverse from his brother, Bob, Jack Voitier advanced the ball to the Mississippi twelve. On four downs the Bulldogs advanced only six yards and lost the ball and their last scoring opportunity. The much publicized Southern attack never did materialize due to the strenuous efforts of "Chummy" Dodd, Bickham, Neely and Bandura who threw the elusive Mississippi backs for many losses.

SOUTHWESTERN 6; NORMAL 0

In the traditional Turkey-day battle with the Louisiana State Normal Demons, played at Natchitoch, Southwestern began their offensive maneuvers early in the game to score, then fell back on the ever dependable forward wall to protect their six-point lead and won 6-0.

the Bulldogs marched downfield with Bill Bernhard, soph fullback, and Paul Neil, stellar scat-back, alternating in packing the leather. Sparking the drive down to the Demon one yard line Neil flashed over for games' lone score. Try for point was blocked.

Voitier and Robinson gained considerable yardage in the third quarter behind the workmanlike blocking of Huls and Ramsay. However, the Southwesterners began playing a purely defensive game with the whole line stiffening up and keeping the Demons well out of scoring distance. Campbell, Dodd, Huls, Broussard, and Ramsay stood out in the line play.

This game closed the season for the locals, giving them a record of six games won, two lost and one tied in nine games. The Bulldogs finished second to Louisiana Tech in the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

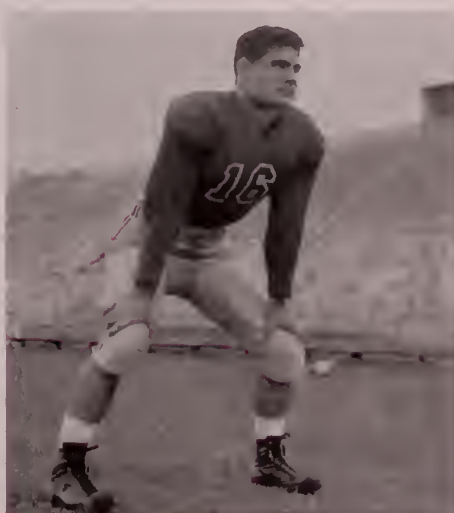

L. I. C. HONORS

Two of the team's hard hitting Juniors, Bills Huls and T. E. Bickham, were honored by being selected as center and guard respectively on the mythical All-L.I.C. eleven. Bob Voitier, Wilson Broussard and Louie Campbell were chosen as members of the second team. John Ramsay, "Chummy" Dodd, Charlie Robinson and Paul Neil were given honorable mention.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Southwestern's unsung heroes of the gridiron season are the freshmen. It is the "Hairless Joes" who day after day, session after session, must take the jolting bumps and bruises dished out by the eager varsity squads as they perfect their attack for the big games. It is the freshmen who must learn the type of football played by the next opponent of the varsity and who must try to find holes in the varsity attack so they might be corrected before the next contest. Football games are won by hard practice and it is up to the lowly frosh to make the sessions interesting for Coach Cain's Bulldogs.

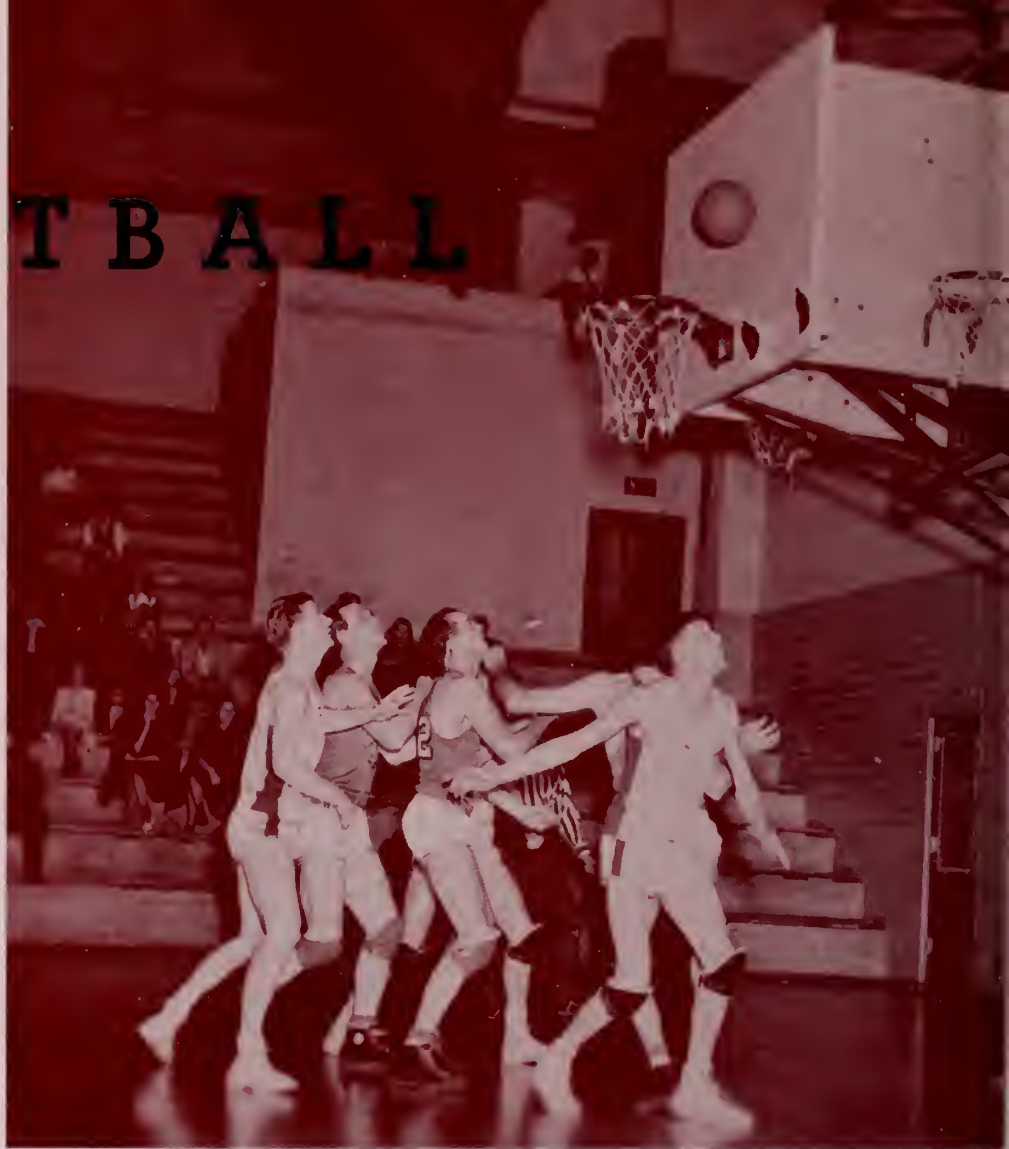

The Bullpups had a short, but successful season, winning two out of three contests. The lone defeat came at the hands of the strong Lamar Junior College team at Beaumont, Texas. The Lone Star team had too much experience for the locals and managed to eek out a victory. Southwestern's wins were over McNeeze Junior College of Lake Charles and the first year men from Louisiana Normal. Until meeting the Bullpups, the Louisiana Normal frosh had gone undefeated and unscored on in five games.

The boys appearing in the above picture are what is left of an outstanding freshmen team. Scholastic requirements and demands of Uncle Sam have whittled the squad down.

COACH "DUTCH" REINHARDT

Coach "Dutch" Reinhardt's 1941-42 edition of the Bulldog basketekers, the most colorful team ever to represent Souhtwestern, gave its supporters thrill after thrill during the season as it came through the home games undefeated for the second successive year. Numerous close games with touted conference opponents kept the fans on edge as the Bulldogs consistently pulled through hard-earned victories. The red and white uniformed Bulldogs' entry onto the playing court precipitated a spontaneous burst of yells as they hurled a regular barrage of balls at the basket then went through their flashy ball-passing exhibition. The attendance at all games was unusually large as the conference games were dedicated to the individual classes and to the Agriculture Dormitories. Half time entertainment staged by the different classes, abetted by the great Bulldog Band, gave added zest to the contests.

The hoopsters got off to a slow start then boomed down the home stretch with seven successive wins only to be nosed out by the strong Louisiana Tech quintet for the L.I.C. title. The Bulldogs clearly proved their superiority over the Tech Bulldogs by handing them a 40-37 trouncing late in the season.

Southwestern was honored by an invitation to the S.I.A.A. tournament annually held in Bowling Green, Kentucky, largest basketball tourney in the South. At Bowling Green, the squad advanced to the semi-finals, but despite continued brilliant performances bowed out before Western Kentucky, who went on to gain the championship. The tournament completed the season for the Bulldogs, leaving them with an impressive record of 13 wins in 19 games.

Individual honors for the team went to Co-Captains Joe LaBauve, one-hand set shot specialist, and Harold "Rocky" Reed, left-hand shooting artist. Both were selected on the mythical All-S.I.A.A. team, and for the second successive year were awarded first string positions on the All-L.I.C. squad. This high-scoring duo ranked two-three in conference scoring. LaBauve scored 106 points and Reed scored 93 points in the eight conference games. Further honors went to Southwestern's two great guards, Dick Breen and Red Close. Breen received a second team position on the All-L.I.C. squad and Close was selected on the S.I.A.A. second team and for Honorable Mention from the L.I.C. With "Skull" Glaze, Junior ace, completing the regular line-up Southwestern presented a formidable, high scoring aggregation night after night.

Coach Reinhardt was forced to depend upon his reserve strength, Hanchey, Gordon, and Foreman being called upon frequently. Sophomores Browning, Fields, Lea, Lane, and Fontenot bolstered the squad and acquired experience for future campaigns.

The Bulldogs opened the season with two home games with the 32nd Division, who proved to be no match for the rangy, well-conditioned Southwesterners, losing by runaway scores of 44-25 and 41-14.

The locals then tackled more formidable opposition in their invasion of Florida as they tangled with the nationally famous Pensacola Naval Air Station team, AAU runner-ups last year. Despite the valiant battling of the entire squad Southwestern was unable to cope with the devastating attack of the high-flying Airmen, and succumbed by close scores of 39-44 and 30-34.

Continuing their journey on into Alabama the Bulldogs crashed their way into the win column again by romping over the outstanding Dixie Conference squad, the Springhill Badgers, by a 52-35 score. The game was a rough-house affair, finding both LaBauve and Reed ejected early in the contest, but Hanchey, Glaze, and "Flash" Gordon took over the offensive reins and banged in numerous baskets to smother the Badgers under.

The opening conference game was played in Lafayette and the Bulldog scoring machine ran up 43 points to 32 for Southeastern Lions, of Hammond, Louisiana. "Rock" Reed garnered scoring honors with 11 points, while Gordon and LaBauve trailed closely with 10 each. Close and Breen played masterful defensive games, keeping the Lion forwards in check throughout.

Playing their second conference game at the stronghold of the Louisiana College Wildcats, the Bulldogs ran into Joe Mallard, conference scoring leader, and a too-scrupulous referee, and lost 34-37. Mallard tallied 21 points and the ref fouled out Hanchey and LaBauve. LaBauve and Reed racked up 12 points apiece during the encounter to keep the Bulldogs on the heels of the Wildcats.

Leaving their conference cares behind them the Bulldogs met Loyola Wolf Pack, '42 Dixie Conference Champions, in Lafayette. Here for the first time the Bulldogs really hit their stride, as their plays clicked to perfection and their shots hit from all angles. LaBauve put on a scoring exhibition, as he chalked up 20 points. The Wolves ran into a stonewall defense as Breen and Close held the Loyola squad to one lucky field goal and eight foul shots in the first half. The reserves finished out the game to close with a masterful 46-31 win.

Swinging back into the conference the Bulldog quest for the title was stymied by the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs at Ruston, as the Techsters eked out a 43-37 victory. Half time score 23-23, however, soon after the half LaBauve and Close fouled out and the Tech Bulldogs forged ahead to win. Soph Forward Rauhman Browning displayed promise by chalking up six points before his departure from the game via the foul route. This loss proved to be costly as it was the difference between second place and a tie for first at the season's end.

Spurred on by the sting of this defeat the Bulldogs here began to play brilliant ball, winning their next seven straight games. The first opponent to suffer at the hands of the inspired Southwesterners was the Millsaps Majors of Jackson, Mississippi. Playing on their home court the Bulldogs overwhelmed this non-conference opponent by a score of 52-36. LaBauve moved up to a forward position and banged in 16 points, while "Skull" Glaze moved into the starting line-up at center and earned the right to remain there by swishing in 12 points. Red Close got hot and hit the basket for 10 points from his guard position.

Meeting the Louisiana College Wildcats in the local gym the Bulldogs snatched away a thriller from the Wildcats by a 57-43 margin to revenge their early season loss at the local lair of the Cats. Two guys named Joe, LaBauve of S.L.I. and Mallard of Louisiana College, staged a hectic scoring due with alternating flashy shots only to end up with 23 points apiece. Reed with 10 points and Breen and Close with six each kept the scoring machine rolling smoothly. Glaze and Gordon played bang-up supporting roles. Frequent exchanges of the lead kept the fans in a frenzy and the ultimate Bulldog win brought the contest to a perfect finish for the local supporters.

Playing the Southeastern Lions at Hammond the Canines ran rough-shod over this team. Joe LaBauve again sparked the squad as he scored 18 points. Rock Reed ran up 10 points before he fouled out. Soph Browning again proved his mettle in tallying 12 points after replacing Reed in the line-up. Southwestern led all the way despite the 20 points shoved through by the Lion ace, Reiz.

Harold Reed and Skull Glaze paved the way to a victory over the Champion Louisiana Tech Bulldogs in the last meeting of the season of the two teams. The red and white kept conference hopes high by taking a 40-37 game from the Techsters. Reed scored 15 points and Glaze 12. Although Southwestern led all the way the hoopsters were forced to freeze the ball in the final minutes of the game, successfully holding the frenzied Techsters in check. If Tech had lost their game with Southwestern the next night the locals would have tied them for the conference crown. However, Tech won and cinched the title.

Slightly disheartened by loss of their title chances the Bulldogs took their disappointment out on their great rivals, the Normal Demons. Meeting the Demons at Normal the Bulldogs out-scored them, 56-51 with Reed getting high scoring honors with 21 points and LaBauve amassing 18. The Bulldogs were hard pressed at times but managed to retain their lead.

Meeting the Baton Rouge Air Base team here the Bulldogs made the contest a farce by running up a big score and letting the Frosh team take over. "Flash" Gordon chalked up 15 points before his removal. With every squad member taking part in the game the Bulldogs romped away with a 56-20 win.

In the last home game of the year and the last conference game of the season the Bulldogs rolled over the Normal Demons for a second straight time. Score 39-33. Joe LaBauve and Red Close teamed up to score 10 points each and lead the Canines to their eighth win in conference play as compared with two losses. This game saw Joe LaBauve, Harold Reed, Dick Breen, Red Close, Graydon Hanchey, and Jack Gordon playing their last game before the home fans, closing out three years of displaying great ballplaying before local fans with another win.

The hoopsters closed out their regular scheduled season with the Loyola Wolf Pack at New Orleans. Marcev and Trombatore, great Wolf forwards, tallied 20 and 25 points to give Loyola a 57-67 win. Joe LaBauve gave New Orleans fans a thrill by chalking up 19 points with his one-hand set shot. Southwestern played good ball but could not hold the Loyola forward wall in check.

Honored with a post-season invitation to the famous Bowling Green Tournament the Bulldogs celebrated by playing the most brilliant games of their entire season. In their opening game they disposed of the North Carolina Presbyterians with ease by a runaway score of 73-53. LaBauve with 22 points, Reed with 14, and Glaze with 12, won the game and brought the Bulldogs to the semi-finals.

In the semi-finals Southwestern encountered the Western Kentucky Teachers and battling them on even terms throughout the game the Canine team-work and hustling play made them appear to be the better team, but in the last three minutes the Western lads shoved through two field goals to ice the game, 49-43. Joe LaBauve was hailed as one of the greatest players ever to take part in the tourney and he and Harold Reed, another star of the tournament, were chosen for positions on the All-S.I.A.A. team, while Red Close, playing the greatest ball of his career, received a second team place on the squad. LaBauve scored 14 points and Close marked up 13 digits in this game.

Western, went on, after winning the S.I.A.A. to the National Invitational Tournament held at Madison Square Garden in New York there defeating City College of New York, and Creighton to enter the finals. These wins add to the Bulldog prestige because Southwestern came so close to defeating Western that there is little difference in the two teams.

At a tournament held at Penn State, Louie Campbell waded through strong opposition to become the first Southwestern Boxer ever to win the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championship. Louie won his title in the heavyweight class.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPIONS

The Southwestern boxing team was honored this year by an invitation to participate in the Sugar Bowl boxing program on December 29 in New Orleans. Coach "Gee" Mitchell and his assistant, Coach Ted Kara, with only three veterans from the famed 1941 squad, gathered together a formidable squad and literally knocked the highly touted U. of Florida team out of the ring.

Starting his most successful year, Captain Donald Harper swept to a clean decision over tough Al Young of Florida. The second bout found long Ray Fontenot making a surprising varsity debut as he won by a T.K.O. over the 'Gator's Neil Goss. Florida's only victory came in the 135 lbs. class. Former champion Johnny Joca overcame game opposition to decision Johnnie Guzzina of Southwestern. Exhibiting unpredicted power, Raleigh Ohlmeyer floored his Florida opponent, Ralph Thompson for a T.K.O. win in the third stanza. In the 155 lbs. go Frosh Warren Cormier started fast, but the Florida representative, Reeder, fought an uphill battle to gain a draw. V. J. Culmone, Bulldog knockout artist, ended his fight early in the first round with a smashing kayo over Bob Cromwell. At 175 lbs. Leo Coe coasted to an easy decision over Frank Conlon. Southwestern's national champion, Louie Campbell, hustled to a clear cut win over the Florida heavyweight, Trotter.

SOUTHWESTERN 7; UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS 1

Collecting five technical knockouts, one decision and one forfeit, The Bulldogs defeated the Longhorns from Texas by an overwhelming score of 7 bouts to 1. The Texas boxers were badly outclassed, but put up game opposition.

Donald Harper started the ball rolling with a third round T.K.O.

over Leveronne of the Longhorns. Garnering his second consecutive kayo of the season, Ray Fontenot was awarded the decision over Bill Barnes in the third stanza. After one minute and a half of the second round, the 145 lbs. match was awarded to the Bulldog's Raleigh Ohlmeier whose right hand proved too much for Ragsdale of the Lone Star State. The Southwestern knockout string was unbroken when Warren Cormier scored a clean knockout over Captain Dick Hockaday of Texas. Biggest upset of the night was in the 155 lbs. class. Cowboy George Porter, after nearly being kayoed, came back to win by a T.K.O. over Culmone in the second round. In the only fight to go the limit, Leo Coe decided Dean of the visitors. Louie Campbell scored a T.K.O. over Griffin in the heavyweight contest.

SOUTHWESTERN 5½; UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA 2½

Meeting Florida for the second time, Coach "Gee" Mitchell's proteges showed the 'Gator fans their might and drubbed the U. of Florida by a 5½ to 2½ score. The Bulldog battlers were fast developing into one of the best collegiate fistic teams in the country and the Floridians fared only a little better than in the Sugar Bowl.

Fontenot lost to Florida's star, Al Young. Harper, weighing in at 127 lbs., was the victor over Neil Goss. The 1940 national champion in the 135 lbs. division, Johnny Joca, gained the decision over Johnnie Guzzina who furnished spirited opposition. Southwestern's Ohlmeier drew with Thompson and Cormier bested C. L. Reeder. Hard hitting V. J. Culmone repeated his Sugar Bowl win over Cromwell. Southpaw Leo Coe had an easy time with Frank Conlon and Champ Louie Campbell put on the finishing touches by disposing of Warren Trotter.

SOUTHWESTERN 6; MIAMI 2

Traveling far and wide seeking top notch competition, Southwestern's next victim was Miami University, by a top heavy 6 to 2 count. The nationally prominent Bulldog bashers, in their second dual meet in three days, were decidedly superior to the Miami lads and kept their impressive win column intact.

Surprise of the night was Campbell's loss to Cameron of the Hurricanes. The fight was clean and the Miami fighter steered clear of Louie's lethal right to gain a decision over the N.C.A.A. champion.

Harper won on a forfeit. Fighting at 165 lbs., V. J. Culmone released both barrels for a first round T.K.O. over Locke of the Hurricanes. Guzzina, Ohlmeyer and Coe all collected wins via decisions and Fontenot and Cormier battled to well earned draws.

SOUTHWESTERN 8; MURRAY STATE TEACHERS 0.

Murray State Teachers of Kentucky received the full impact of Bulldog boxing prowess and were white-washed by a score of 8 to 0. The score is not very indicative of the fights for the Kentuckians had a well balanced squad and put up game opposition in every bout.

Louie Campbell was lost to the team as he joined the U. S. Marine Corps. Wilson Broussard was called on to fill the big shoes of the champion and in his first fight scored a rousing haymaker to end his match with Nickolas in the second round.

In the 120 lbs. class, Donald Harper, tried in vain for a knockout over Washam, but was unable to land the final blow. Although outreached, Ray Fontenot landed hard rights to win a decision over Candill. In a fast bout, Johnnie Guzzina decisioned Aldman of Murray. Raleigh Ohlmeyer won over Leo Hutt in a cautious contest. Murray's Green Liley, a bobbing weaving mittman, lost to Warren Cormier. Although undefeated in three years, Fisher of the Kentucky team lost to V. J. Culmone in the 165 lbs. go. Leo Coe boxed cleverly to keep out of reach of Levandoski of Murray and won the 175 lbs. contest.

SOUTHWESTERN 6: LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY 2

Before an excited crowd of 8,000 fans in McNaspy Stadium, Southwestern's well balanced and well trained boxers blasted a tough L.S.U. squad by a walloping score of 6 to 2. Coaches Mitchell and Kara had a right to be proud of the Bulldogs, the local boxers fought cleverly and were aggressive in every bout.

Both judges and referee were unanimous in granting the first match of the program to hustling "Herkie" Harper of Southwestern who ran into a rough opponent in Clyde Hargar. Ray Fontenot fought his best fight of the season and came close to knocking State's Tommy Dale out of the ring. The Tiger's first point came in the 135 lbs. division. Long, tall Leon An-draws seemed to be all elbows and boxed to a clean decision over Johnnie Guzzina. Raleigh Ohlmeyer hit hard and often to gain the nod over Delesdernier. Fancy boxing Bill Hondelong of the Tigers lost a decision to smooth operating Warren Cormier. In the first round of the 165 lbs. match, V. J. Culmone's lethal left exploded on State's Bill Nichols and knocked him cold in the second round. Leo Coe had no trouble in disposing of Fritz Brupbacher and hit at will, clinching the meet. L.S.U.'s big Herb Kendrick lived up to advance notices in polishing off Wilson Broussard early in the first round.

SOUTHWESTERN 3: UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN 5

For their final dual meet of the season, the Bulldogs journeyed north to Wisconsin and were defeated by the Wisconsin Badgers, 5 to 3. Southwestern came close to ending Wisconsin's amazing record of 47 consecutive home victories, but Lady Luck stepped in and the Bulldogs were stopped short of their mark. Wisconsin papers glowingly described the locals as the best boxing team ever to fight the Badgers.

Broussard in the heavyweight bout. Harper's fight was stopped in the third round due to a cut, but the Bulldog Captain had piled up enough points to win the decision. Wisconsin's Collentine won a questionable decision over Ray Fontenot. National champion Gene Rankin won over Albert Daly of Southwestern. The Badger 145 pounder, used lefts to a good advantage to beat Warren Cormier and Lutz had two big rounds to get the decision over Ohlmeyer. Hard luck hit the Bulldogs again as Culmone's fight was halted after his opponent suffered a cut. The fight had not progressed far enough for a decision to be rendered. Leo Coe showed real ability in rocking Markis of the visitors in the third round and easily won the contest.

N.C.A.A. BOXING TOURNEY

The National Collegiate Athletic Association boxing meet was held this year at Louisiana State with the cream of collegiate boxing entered. Southwestern was represented by only four men as injuries and a ruling not permitting freshmen to participate prevented three Bulldog stars, Guzzina, Cormier and Culmone, from entering the ring.

Captain Donald Harper climaxed four years of outstanding accomplishments by winning the national crown in the 120 lbs. class. Harper was a true champion in winning over stellar men from San Jose, U. of Wisconsin and the U. of Syracuse.

Leo Coe lost out in the finals to Wisconsin after looking good in a win over a lad from Valparaiso. Southwestern's 127 pounder also advanced to the finals but was bested in the title bout by a San Jose boxer. Raleigh Ohlmeyer was put out of the meet in his first fight by Jollymore of Wisconsin.

In the last four years boxing at Southwestern has reached unprecedented heights under the tutelage of Coach George "Gee" Mitchell. Coach Mitchell proved the value of observation and study, for the Bulldog mentor never participated in intercollegiate boxing, but year in and year out he has gathered together championship teams that have gained national prominence. He is recognized as one of the foremost fistic coaches in the country and is regarded as an expert on college boxing rules. This season Coach Mitchell was fortunate in having the able assistance of Ted Kara, former three time national champion from the U. of Idaho. Coach Kara proved invaluable in conditioning the pugilists and his vast background of experience proved a great asset.

The 1941 Southwestern Track Team will be remembered for several outstanding things—First, the team made a strong uphill fight against injuries and strong opposition to win the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference Championship.

The second outstanding thing about the 1941 team was the phenomenal work of Captain Carrol Baggett throughout the season, and his individual performance in the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference Championship Meet. Many moons will probably pass before Southwestern will boast of such a splendid track man as Carrol Baggett. The same number of moons will have passed before we will witness the duplication of his performance on that day. The fact that he won three hard races in splendid time—mile, 2 mile and 880—and then ran a lap on the winning relay team stamps him as one of the best track men in the South.

As has been the custom for the past fifteen years Southwestern opened its track season by sponsoring the Southwestern Relay Carnival on March 29. The new Southwestern cinder track was not considered in good enough running condition for such a large meet, so it was transferred to the Louisiana State University Track. Southwestern won the sprint medley relay and established a new record (Hetherwick, Buck, Aillet, Baggett) 3:34.2 minutes.

On April 5 the team entered the Texas Relays at Austin, Texas. A strong sprint medley team, 440, 220, 220-880, composed of Hetherwick, Buck, Scudder and Baggett were nosed out by the scant margin of six inches by Loyola University of Chicago in the record breaking time of 3:28.2 minutes. Captain Baggett ran an outstanding 880 in 1:52.9 minutes.

The team competed in three triangular meets on successive weekends winning one and placing second in the other two. Results are as follows:

The 1941 Southwestern baseball team started the season early with tilts with several outstanding teams from the midwest. In order to get in condition for the conference race for Big Ten honors, the U. of Illinois, Iowa U. and Northwestern U. journeyed down to the deep south for games with the Southwestern nine. While their homes shivered in snow and sleet the northern teams were getting in valuable training in the Louisiana sunshine against first rate opposition.

Illinois came to town first for a one game stay and blanked the locals by a 8 to 0 count. The next team to oppose Cliff Johnson's Bulldogs was the U. of Iowa. With a great pitcher in Dick Hines, now performing for the Chicago White Sox, Iowa eked out by a 3-2 score and won the second contest 5-2. Bill deCorrevent bagged a four base blow to lead Northwestern to a 5-4 victory over the locals, but the next day Southwestern offensive power blasted the Wildcats 7-3.

The Bulldogs were second in the L.I.C. standings and were bested by Louisiana Tech. In a four game series with Centenary, Southwestern won each contest easily and the lads began to hit the apple. Louisiana Tech, winning two games by two runs and two games by a single tally, ruined Bulldog championship hopes. Sam Foreman, dependable Bulldog hurler, pitched a four hit game in this series, but was nosed out 2-1. Louisiana Normal's aggregation was an easy prey for the Southwestern nine, losing four games by lopsided scores. In a game won by a 19-1 count, the Bulldogs connected for six home runs.

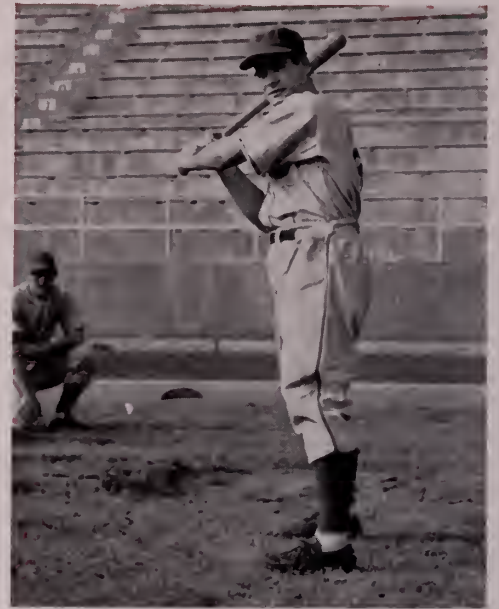

Clyde Didier, sparkplug catcher, led the locals with the willow and connected at opportune times. Jack and Bob Voitier and Al Steigman were also outstanding for their batting ability.

This year's team with Louisiana Normal are defending L.I.C. Champions. The 1941 Bulldog netmen tied with Normal for conference honors in a tournament held at Southwestern. Vincent DeStefano is the singles champ of the Louisiana loop and ranks as one of the better collegiate tennis players. DeStefano along with Lawrence Como, a member of last year's team, were second in doubles play.

Southwestern should again prove a strong contender for L.I.C. honors.

The 1941 team was made up of Harold Reed, Sweeney Smith, James Huff, Dece Watson. The clubsters took second place in the L.I.C. playoff at Shreveport.

This year's team is strongly fortified with the addition of Albert Daly and Junis Hebert, who replace Huff and Watson.

The team is now working hard to prove up the fourth man, and this year we are expecting a championship record.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

WOMEN'S

Women's athletics this year were carried out on a broader scale than ever before. The war has made everyone realize the tremendous importance of having all of our citizens in good physical condition.

The Department of Physical Education offered a wide and varied program of sports participation for the woman student on the campus. Every coed was encouraged to take part in one or many sports. Tennis, badminton, ping pong, volleyball, basketball, archery and bicycling were among the favorite activities for the girls.

The added excitement of competition helped to make the sports program more attractive to the coed. Intramural leagues were formed and the many girl clubs and sororities entered teams who tried hard to garner athletic honors for their respective organizations.

An organization close to the Department of Physical Education is the W.A.A. The Women's Athletic Association sponsors one of the most entertaining programs of the year, Stunt Night. On this night the many feminine clubs present highly original and beautiful stunts in competition for the prizes given.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

ORCHESIS CLUB

A comparatively new organization, however, one that creates a great deal of interest on the campus. New members are chosen from the outstanding students of all dance classes at Southwestern. Its purpose is to foster a more wholesome knowledge of dancing from an educational viewpoint. This group sponsors an annual benefit show, in which only the active members may participate. Miss Triplett acts as instructor.

MIXED CHORUS

This organization combines the talents of both the male and female voices. It has gained a place in the finer ranking organizations of the campus. Some of the outstanding programs were given during the Christmas season. The students have never failed to support this group, and everyone is looking forward to hearing them again.

Directed by Mr. Ducrest

DIRECTOR.....MR. GEORGE BARTH

The entire student body of Southwestern has enthusiastically welcomed each performance given by this group. It seems that each program offered by this select group of highly trained musicians attracted a larger number of music lovers than any other concert given on previous occasions. To numerous events, especially to Christmas programs, they have become indispensable. Mr. George Barth is the director.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

"Getting better all the time" is not at all uncommon when some of the students voice their opinion of what is perhaps the most outstanding glee club in any southern college. The glee club is considered a part of the music department, but its members are drawn from the vast store of talented singers which are to be found on the campus. Rehearsals are held at regular intervals so that new songs can be rehearsed, and old ones made better.

Each year the two societies debate to win the Dupre Shield, an annual award to the team winning the most debates throughout the year. This shield is awarded by Miss Dupre of our own English Department.

The faculty advisors are Mr. Roy D. Murphy and Dr. C. L. Dugdale.

This group was organized to consolidate the various departments of the College of Agriculture. Since its organization it has made for a closer relation between the Home Economics Department and the Agriculture Department.

AS THE BAND PLAYED ON

Heralding its most successful year the 134 piece Bulldog Band, under the baton of Professor Howard C. Voorhies, went into a three week training period on September 8th, 1941. Included in this program were technic classes, section rehearsals, concert practice, field maneuvers, parade formations, and special football music.

As a result of these early days of hard work the now famous "King of College Swing Bands" thrilled the fans at the Bulldog clash with Southeastern gridsters, bringing to itself and S. L. I. statewide recognition throughout the season. This versatile organization thrilled the spectators and inspired its heroes to victory.

To "Gee" Mitchell's eight fistic pupils of national achievement, to "Dutch" Rinehart's basketballers, and to Coach Bob Browne's track stars, the Bulldog Bandsters furnished unending support and help. Besides adding color and show to the athletes, these musicians contributed something still greater. When victory seemed afar and defeat at hand, one of the three S. L. I. Bands—the Girls Band, the Freshman Band, and the Varsity Band—proved a vital factor in many a win.

Standing as a highlight in the Voorhies Band program is one of the few College Girls Bands in the United States. Living up to its reputation this unique aggregation of beautiful girl musicians toured the surrounding cities. On these tours the Girls' Glee Club, composed mainly of the Band and fifteen additional voices, performed splendidly under the able baton of Professor Willis Ducrest. A spring concert, enhanced with feminine beauty and grace, climaxed a most successful year in the history of the South's famous College All-Girls Band.

Trail blazers, pioneers—such words characterize the new, the most popular, and most timely organization ever to stir the hearts of Louisianians. The Singing Band of Southwestern Louisiana Institute has won a place in music history. It has proved that the two essential components of music—vocal and instrumental—can be combined in a successful manner. This was definitely exhibited when the Bulldog Singing Band—fifty of Southwestern's best instrumentalists and vocalists—entertained fourteen thousand public school children of New Orleans amid huge applauses, large crowds, and encores galore. For two days, Feb. 9th and 10th, the Bandsters serenaded the students of the major high schools of Louisiana's metropolis.

The achievement and impression left behind by this Band in these high schools will never be forgotten. They have been recorded and expressed in the hundreds of letters sent to President Joel Fletcher.

As a finale to its triumphant tour the Singing Band performed on the stage of the elegant Fine Arts Auditorium on the night of Feb. 18th. Inadequate was the seating capacity, as a large crowd was not afforded the opportunity to hear the Band. Therefore, at a command performance the program was repeated.

So great and popular was the acclaim of the Singing Band that another tour was taken. This tour was even more successful than the first, and yet the Singing Band was not through! Enroute again, the Band spread its fame to the West and North. Everywhere it went the Singing Band has won a place in the hearts of its audiences.

At home, and from the windy Mississippi on the East, to the lazy Western Louisiana bayous, and from the hills of the North to the shores of the Gulf of Mexico, the 1941-42 Bulldog Bands have spread that stimulating, inspiring motto, "That Friendly College, Southwestern."
